Instructions: Follow the steps below to set up create and practice your elevator pitch. An elevator pitch is your answer to the interview question Tell me about yourself. Make sure you speak as if you are in an interview. Tailor your pitch to make it relevant to an interview for a software developer position.

1. Write your elevator pitch below. Your pitch should:
 - a. be clear and concise
 - b. be less than 30 seconds
 - c. be a summary of who you are
 - d. contain something personal (i.e. a hobby, passion, etc.)

My Elevator Pitch:

My name is Kevin, I went to College at NWACC for my Associate of Science Degree. After that, I went to the University of Arkansas to pursue a career in Math. Not too long ago, I decided to switch careers and I am currently in a Back End Coding Bootcamp in Promineo Tech and is currently on the 3rd Week learning about Java. My hobby is playing video games, especially with friends along with watching anime and reading manga.

2. Practice your elevator pitch out loud. Record your elevator pitch and upload it to the internet. You can use whichever tool you'd like to upload (Facebook, YouTube, DropBox, etc.), just make sure you can give someone a link to view the file. Paste the link to your uploaded recording below.
